

NEWS RELEASE

Holidays mean free parking, trash collection changes

FREDERICK, MD – Nov. 21, 2016: Thanksgiving on Thursday marks the start of holiday parking rates, and will cause a change in trash collection.

The City of Frederick offices will be closed Thursday and Friday in observance of the Thanksgiving holiday.

REFUSE COLLECTION

Residential:

There will be no trash collection service on Thursday, Nov. 24 in observance of the Thanksgiving holiday, and normal Friday collection will move to Monday.

- If you normally set your household trash out on Wednesday evening for Thursday collection please set your trash out on Thursday evening for Friday collection.
- If you normally set your household trash out on Thursday evening for Friday collection please set your trash out on Sunday evening for Monday collection.

Commercial Downtown Business District:

Commercial Business Trash Service:

Trash will be collected on normal schedule.

Commercial Business Recycling Service (not residential):

Recycling will not be collected on Friday, Nov. 25, but will return to the normal schedule on Monday, Nov. 28.

Yard Waste Collection Services:

There will be no yard waste collection on Thursday, Nov. 24 or Friday, Nov. 25 in observance of the Thanksgiving Holiday. Residents are asked to hold their yard waste until the next scheduled collection date.

PARKING

Free Holiday parking begins Thanksgiving day. It includes Frosty Friday, Nov. 25, and the entire weekend. From 8 a.m. Saturday to 6 a.m. Monday, every weekend through News Year's day, parking is free at meters and in parking decks.

###