The Frederick Police Department along with the NAC’s will be hosting a Crime Summit on February 6th at Hood College from 8:00 am – 12:00 pm. Registration is required. For more information please contact Michele Bowman at 301-600-2091 or mbowman@frederickmdpolice.org.

 Lt. Tokarz (Support Services Division Commander) was also on hand to talk about FPD recruiting efforts. Lt. Tokarz said that that we are allocated 144 officers and we have 145 currently. We are allowed to over hire to staff for anticipated retirements. He said this can be done for up to 6 months. Along with the 145 sworn officers there are also 48 civilian employees. The FPD is currently looking for Dispatchers and if anyone is interested they can apply online.

FPD is also hosting an academy which is going on now. There are 7 FPD recruits in the class. Along with the FPD recruits there are also recruits from other agencies to make up the class of 20.

Chief Hargis was also in attendance to answer any questions. He talked about the Chief's Forum and asked for those interested to contact him. He is looking to gather input from citizens as to police policy changes, etc. He also said that the accreditation assessment was about 3 weeks ago and the outcome will be announced in March/April.

Project: The Applicant is requesting a revision to the Master Plan to replace some multi-family units with fee simple townhouses at the intersection of the new East 7th Street and East Church Street as part of the project. The project has been reduced from 440 units to 410 units.

GUEST SPEAKER

Katie O'Connor-Jenkins - FCHD Tobacco Prevention, Cessation, and Enforcement Program

Katie was on hand to talk about the FCHD programs to stop the sales of tobacco to minors. She provided handouts to the attendees. She also had statistics for Frederick County. She said sales in Maryland have cost the state over 3 million dollars in federal grant dollars this year. The rate for Frederick County in 2014 was 11.1% as compared to the State of Maryland 24.1% and for 2015, Frederick 5.3% and Maryland 31.4%.

The Health Department is looking to do education, mailings, and visiting businesses that sell tobacco. The community can help by reporting merchants that fail to check id's to those that look under the age of 18. The number is 877-287-1373.

OLD BUSINESS:

- Arnold Farlow was on hand and introduced Kathy who is the Director for Faith House. He said they are currently working on the outside of the property and hope to have it open by spring.
